

KATHERINE SUGGS REID.
TELEPHONE 538

THE DREAM OF A KNIGHT. will be the subject of the sermon-lecture to be delivered by Dr. J. W. Burns, at the First Christian church, tonight. At the morning service today Dr. Burns will preach on the subject, "Sunday Habits." At both services the choir will render special musical numbers, also soloists are on both programs. The first thirty minutes of the service tonight will be given to a musical entertainment, consisting of solos and anthems, under the direction of Mrs. Homer Adams and Miss Anne Thompson.

Miss Jinkie Ikard is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Ikard, 812 Douglas, southeast.

Dr. L. E. Hoard of McKinney, Tex., is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hoard.

Mr. Samuel J. Harris, officiating student in the Jewish holiday services, leaves today for his home in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mrs. C. L. Anderson entertained the members of the Lily Bridge Club at her home yesterday afternoon in their first meeting of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Elliott, father and mother of Mr. Dee Elliott, left last week for California, where they will spend the winter.

The Wednesday Embroidery Club will be entertained Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Mrs. Tom Davenport, 1195 E. northwest.

A message received Saturday morning from Mr. L. H. Bradford states that Mrs. Bradford, who underwent an operation at the Mayo Brothers' Sanitarium at Rochester, Minn., is getting along nicely, the operation having been entirely successful.

There will be a regular meeting of the Pythian Sisters Tuesday evening in the K. of P. hall at 7:30 o'clock. All candidates who have not been initiated are requested to be present. At the close of the meeting refreshments will be served.

Miss Elizabeth Myers, accompanied by little Ruth Tom Frame, left yesterday for Oklahoma City, where they will be the weekend guests of Mrs. Lon Frame. Mrs. Tom Frame, who has been a guest of Mrs. Frame for a fortnight, will return with them this afternoon.

The Mothers' Club of the Fourth ward will hold a meeting Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Pupils of the 8th grade will give the program, which promises to be of great interest and entertainment. Members of the club and their friends are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Miss Margaret Strayhorn, of Chicago, Ill., arrived in the city last week and has rooms with Mrs. Shelton Tyler, B street, southwest. Miss Strayhorn is a post-graduate of the Chicago School of Physical Education and Expression, and also a pupil of Rebecca Lesser and Alice Hollister Clark of New York. She is completing arrangements for the opening of a dancing school in Ardmore.

The Ardmoreite has received the following invitation from Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Hardy, who formerly resided here:

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Hardy Request the honor of your presence on the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage

Monday evening, October sixteenth Nineteen hundred sixteen Portales, New Mexico.

Reception from eight to ten o'clock. At home.

There will be a call meeting of the Mothers' Club of the High school Monday afternoon in The Ardmoreite cooking school room at the Randolph hotel, immediately following the lecture by Mrs. Bertha Wilcock. The object of this meeting is to formulate plans for equipping the Domestic Science department of the High school, and every member is urged to be present.

Mrs. Fred Tucker entertained the members of the Thimble Tea Club with an informal afternoon of needlework Friday at her home on Scott street, southwest. An ice course was served the following guests: Mmes. Roy Johnson, H. D. McCulloch, John Potter, Lucien Hoard, Arthur Hall, Roy Alexander, Barney Feagin, Chas. Dobbins, Harold Young, Cooper, Vernon Shouse, Emily Powikes, Miss Willie Tucker and Mrs. Louis Boyd.

Mrs. I. W. Folsom entertained the members of the Pleasant Hour Club, Friday afternoon at her residence, 810 North Washington. The home was beautifully decorated with pink and cream roses and a most pleasing diversion was the song and fairy dance given by little Chiquita Matthews, the three-year-old daughter of Mrs. Sam Matthews. A two-course luncheon was served the following guests: Mmes. Kirk Dyer, Clint Dove, L. H. Griffin, John Galt, Robert Gilliam, T. K. Kearney, J. R. Pulliam, Henry Sutherland, F. P. von Keller, Harold Wallace, Walter Colbert, Sam Matthews. Mrs. Folsom was assisted by Misses Mae Stephens and Helen von Keller.

The Civic League held a very interesting meeting at the home of Mrs. George Ramsey Friday afternoon. A great deal of enthusiasm is being manifested by the women of Ardmore in this league, and many plans were laid out for the year's work. A general discussion was indulged in, when it was decided that the ladies hold a

SUITS OF DISTINCTION

Printzess

THERE are so many thoroughly stylish PRINTZESS Suits here in our garment department—suits of such good quality, that choosing becomes simply a matter of pleasing one's individual fancy. Every fall garment in our store owes its presence here to its noteworthy distinctiveness and our complete collection is well fitted to inspire you with the fullest sense of its beauty. All sizes are here and as to the prices, they range from flower show this fall. Of particular interest was the decision that the league specialize on some civic improvement during the year, and these plans will be further carried out at the next meeting which will be announced at an early date. Following the business session, Mrs. Ramsey served a two-course luncheon.

$15.00 AND UP

Henry Baum & Co.

"Sonship a Divine Bestowment," "A Human Achievement," and "A Stick That Became a Snake," are the subjects for discussion at the morning and evening hours today at Broadway Methodist church, Rev. Welch, pastor. The music will be especially good, as will be seen from the following program:

Morning Service—
Organ Prelude—From "Tannhauser"
Offertory Solo—"Angels' Serenade"—Braga
Miss Randol.
Anthem—"Pleasant Are Thy Courts"—Heinrich
Mr. John Hoffmann, Mrs. E. B. Reid, and Choir.
Duet, "Abide With Me"—Jerome

Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Wood.
Evening Service—
Organ Prelude—Gounod
Offertory Solo—"Response"—Rockwell
Miss Randol.
Anthem, "Nearer Home"—Hasti
Miss Dean and Choir.
Solo, "The Good Shepherd"—Van de Water
Miss Bond.

One of the prettiest of the going-away events in honor of Miss Mary Anderson, who leaves soon for New York City, was the dinner dance given Friday evening by Miss Gladice Walling at the Chickasaw lake. An elaborate dinner was served at 7:30 o'clock. The table had for its central decoration a large silver basket filled with pink carnations and Asparagus Plumosa ferns, the handled tied with a big butterfly bow or pink maline. The ferns extended to the corners of the table, where they were attached to smaller baskets of the pink flowers. The color scheme of pink was further carried out in the pink candles in silver holders which were placed at intervals on the table, and the place cards were a beautiful wreath arrangement of small rosebuds. After dinner was served, the hours were spent in dancing. At 11 o'clock the guests were again conducted to the dining room, where they found the table decorated with a birthday cake, ablaze with twenty-one candles, a surprise celebration in honor of the birthday of the hostess' brother, Mr. Charles Walling. With due formality the cake was cut and the following prizes won: The ring, to Miss Anne Thompson, dime to Miss Jeanette Moore, button to Mr. Hal Spragins, entree to Mr. Charles Walling. An ice course was then served. Miss Walling's guests for the evening were: Misses Mary Anderson, Anne Thompson, Thelma Ramsey, Mattie Claire Gano, Helen Walcott, Eugenia Nivouche, Regina Blank, Marie West, Jeanette Moore, Genevieve Nivouche; Messrs. Gordon Gano, Everett Krueger, Saunders, Royce Krueger, Spragins, DeLatté, Morrissey, Walling, Mahoney, Nelms.

CONTINUED ON PAGE FOURTEEN

You'll Come Back To Levy's Style Shop

Quite a few customers, after looking at our garments the other day said: "Well we will look around first before we buy." They were gone several hours, and when they came back tired and dissatisfied they admitted that they couldn't see anything at near our prices, as well made, style and value. THEY ALL COME BACK

Sample Suits

Clever new belted and flaring models in Serge, Cheviots, and Wool Poplin, Fur Trimmed and satin lined, actual value $20, $25 and up to $30

$14.95

Suits

That you cannot match anywhere under $30. Gaberdines, Poplins, Serges, Broadcloths, Check Velours and Chases, beaver around bottom and on collars and cuffs value $30, $35 and up to $45

$19.95

Dresses

A nobby little affair with fancy embroidery, made of all wool Serge in Black, Brown Navy Green, and Burgundy Actual values $7.50 to $10

$5.95

Coats

In Fancy Plaids, Mixtures, Cheviots, loose, flare, belted, and Balmacaans, with big convertible collars trimmed with Velvet or Plush. Actual values $20 to $25

$14.95

Blouses

A wonderful underprice purchase brings to you $3.50 and $4.50 New Fall Blouses, soiree silks, chiffon, taffetas, crepe de Chine, in most gorgeous array of autumn colorings

$2.95

SKIRTS

$7.50 to $10.00 values, French Serges, Wool, Poplins, Sol Satin Taffeta, Novelties and the New Pleated Skirts.

$5.95

BLOUSES

$6.00 to $7.50 values of Georgette and Crepe de Chine in white, flesh, two tone combinations, navy and black.

$4.95

The Little Shop With The Big Values